

ON TRAIL OF COPLEY TRIO. Espee Knows Who Held up Oregon Express. Reward for Two Sons of Mining Man. Yukon Floods Demoralize Mail Service.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The Southern Pacific Company, through Chief Crowley of the Special Agents' Division, today issued a circular offering a reward of $500 for the arrest of George Gates, Edwin Vernon Gates and James Arnett. These men, the circular declares, are wanted for the robbery of the Oregon Express at Copley, Shasta county, Cal., March 31, last, in which W. J. O'Neil, the Wells Fargo messenger, was killed by the robbers.

The trio are also accused of having been engaged in a criminal career for some time, and although young in years are declared to have been connected with some of the most daring offenses known to the western authorities. Included in the crimes charged to them are the robbery of an electric car near Portland, Or., last year, in which two men were killed; the hold-up of a Colorado Southern train; the hold-up of a stage at Weaver, Cal.; the robbery of a merchant at Jackson, Cal., and a robbery at Seattle.

George Gates is twenty-seven years of age and his brother Edwin, twenty years. They are the sons of G. G. Gates of Alameda county, a well-known mining man operating in Alameda county, about thirty miles from Modoc county in this state.

The Southern Pacific detectives operating with the Wells Fargo Company's officials together with Sheriff Hamilton of Shasta county and Detective Albert of Sacramento, have been pursuing the men for some time and were close on their trail a number of times, locating the cabins in which they had stayed.

When they were traced across the Sacramento river, they doubled in this back, coming back on water and then escaped. They were held up in Jackson county, Or., where they were made to capture them but were unsuccessful. The fugitives have been pursued northward in the belief that the railroad police have been carrying portraits and names of the men, hoping to secure publicity will assist in their capture.

NINETY-NINE CENT BURIAL.

What the Paupers Will Get if They Shuffle Off in Ventura County.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) VENTURA, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the future it will cost only 99 cents to bury a poor man in Ventura county. The Supervisors today let the contract for burying the pauper dead to E. E. Neely, for 99 cents for each burial.

There has been for a long time a keen competition over these burials between Undertaker Reilly and Undertaker Neely. Both had in bids for the service. For the past year Reilly has attended to the work at a charge of $3.55 for each burial. As the cost for digging each grave is $2, the cost for an outside box $2.50, and the cost for the inside box $2.50, it is hard to see where the pauper poor will get decent burial at 99 cents each, and the prevailing condition of affairs is creating considerable comment.

If the time ever comes when I can't be a good citizen of the United States I am going to leave. I don't want to live in a country where I can't be a good citizen."

"BITTING OVER A MINE." DIMOND POINTED OUT DANGER. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—When H. P. Dimond took the stand today in the hearing before Commissioner Hancock in the Benson and Hyde land fraud cases he identified a number of letters which were offered in evidence by the government. Among them was a letter written by Dimond as the counsel of Hyde and Benson, while he was acting as their attorney before the General Land Office at Washington. The letter says in part: "The laxity of the system you employed is the cause of all this, and as a consequence, you are at this moment sitting over a mine that may be set off at any moment, and some move must be made and at once."

Dimond was then questioned as to why, in writing out the handwriting exhibits, he had made the two mistakes in spelling that were made in one of the anonymous letters. He explained that he had seen the letter at the trial but testified he had no photograph of it.

After a number of papers filed by Dimond on behalf of Hyde at the land office were submitted, the government's examination ended.

Schlesinger, Hyde's attorney, then examined Dimond about the witness's relations with Hyde while at Washington, but nothing new was developed.

PLATT SAYS IT'S PARKER

Judge Will Get Nomination,
Predicts Senator.

Root Best Man for New York's Governor.

Colorado Republicans United,
Hearst Again Loses.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]—Senator Platt predicts the nomination of Judge Alton B. Parker. He said today that he could not resist the temptation of making a few remarks "anent the prospects of the Democratic Presidential nominee, as well as Republican."

"The former certainly will be Judge Parker," said the Senator, "and a mighty fine man he is, too. I look for his nomination without doubt. Things seem to be drifting all his way, and there is no other candidate so available in sight. There is no fear of a dark horse looming up to displace the Judge's chances."

"President Roosevelt will be nominated, and stands an excellent chance of election. There is no doubt in my mind on that score. We are now looking around for a gubernatorial candidate for this State. The best man for the place is Elihu Root. He doesn't want the nomination, and there is no subtlety in his position in that respect. If he can be persuaded, however, for the sake of the party in this State to run, he will be elected. He will make a fine candidate and a fine governor."

Senator McGowan, at the Democratic headquarters today, was surprised by the confidence of Chief Judge Parker's nomination.

"Nothing has occurred to alter the view that Judge Parker will be nominated," the Senator said this morning. "The action of the Connecticut State convention today is of little importance. I look for the nomination of Judge Parker in Connecticut. The State is not large, but it is an Eastern State, and an important one."

WHY HEARST LOST THE DISTRICT
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]—The amount of sterling patriotism and enthusiasm behind the Hearst boom may be estimated by what happened in the District of Columbia at last night's primaries, when Hearst lost.

It was expected even by Hearst's friends that he would go out and buy up the Democracy of this District, which came to be a pretty lank and hungry quantity. But when the time came for the real work and for shelling out money, Hearst went back on all expectations and was so tight with his check book that his friends desisted. He had in force and left him stranded, so far as the District of Columbia was concerned. They had taken some of his money already, but even then they stopped and voted for the man who had not given them a single dollar rather than vote for Hearst unless he tapped his barrel good for them.

MIGHTY ROW ON AT CONNECTICUT STATE CONVENTION.

When Smoke Cleared Away 'Twas Seen that Willie Wain in It Not for a Minute—Solid Delegation for Parker Pledged and Unit Rule Adopted.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
HARTFORD (Conn.) May 6.—In one of the stormiest gatherings the party ever held in Connecticut, the Democratic convention today chose 14 delegates to the St. Louis convention and instructed them to vote as a unit for Judge Alton B. Parker of New York as the Democratic Presidential nominee. A climax came at the end of two hours of angry debate between Hearst and Parker delegates in which, by a hair's breadth, a personal encounter, in full view of the convention, between former Gov. Thomas M. Waller of New London and Dr. F. J. Brothers of New Haven was averted.

The question being debated was the substitution of the minority report of the Committee on Resolutions for the latter a pledge for Parker and the unit rule. Personalities were bandied back and forth, the attack on Gov. Waller accompanying charges that he had deserted the party in 1894. Much of the actual debate between the delegates in which, by a hair's breadth, a personal encounter, in full view of the convention, between former Gov. Thomas M. Waller of New London and Dr. F. J. Brothers of New Haven was averted.

Indiana Democrat Wouldn't Manage Willie's Campaign for Whole Barrel.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LAFAYETTE (Ind.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]—Daniel W. Simms, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, caused a political sensation today by declaring that he had been promised the nomination and a $25,000 campaign fund if he would successfully manage Hearst's campaign in Indiana. He declined the offer.

tions could be seen. They were forced almost into personal combat by the delegates crowding around.

During the colloquy the ex-Governor pushed Dr. Brothers away.

"I first voted for you, Waller," said the doctor.

"For been right," said the other.

Dr. Brothers retorted: "I have been sorry ever since, and want to wash the sin away."

"Go and commit suicide, then," said Waller.

Police men pushed their way toward the scene, while more delegates joined the rush. Spectators expected to see blows struck, but other delegates got between the belligerents.

The situation was so strained that suddenly the convention came to a hush and seats were resumed by the delegates. This was the climax of two hours of excited debate. Then Troop went over and met beside Gov. Waller, while Dr. Brothers returned to his delegation.

The incident was quickly smoothed over. The minority report was refused substitution, 365 to 184, showing that the Hearst delegates were outnumbered.

For first delegate-at-large Homer S. Cummins defeated Alexander S. Troop by a vote of 231 to 137. Bryan F. Mahan was chosen as the other delegate-at-large by acclamation. The convention then adjourned.

Preliminaries were practically all arranged yesterday in preparation for the business of the convention, although several committees did not take a recess until nearly daylight. It was not until the reports of all the caucuses had been made up that the delegates definitely known that Parker delegates had won eleven of the twelve caucuses and that Alexander Troop of New Haven, leader of the Hearst faction, had control in his own county caucus by only ten votes. National Committeeman Homer S. Cummins and former Gov. Thomas M. Waller, for the Committee on Resolutions, prepared recommendations that the State convention instruct its delegates to vote for Parker at St. Louis and to vote as a unit.

All the county caucuses were lively affairs, and in one, that at Hartford, blows were struck and a few drops of blood spilled. The Hearst men, on finding themselves in the minority, resorted to obstructive tactics and the same thing was done by the Parker men in New Haven county, which the Hearst men controlled. The Congress district caucuses were a little quieter, but the Hearst men in each instance were aggressive until roll calls had shown that they were in the minority.

COLORADO REPUBLICANS UNITED.
STATE CONVENTION IN SESSION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
DENVER, May 6.—A sharp contest has been waged for weeks for places on the delegation of the National Republican Convention from Colorado, and was still in progress when the State convention met today for the purpose of naming delegates-at-large and six alternates. Factional differences that have divided the party in this State for the past two years have been adjusted, however, before the meeting of the convention, and an agreement had been reached to have former Senator for Wolcott as the first delegate at large.

It had been agreed also that he should be chairman of the Colorado delegation. It was further decided by the leaders before the convention assembled that Gov. Peabody should be elected and that, contrary to custom, none of the Congressmen shall be sent to the national convention.

Referring to the ballot-box frauds in Denver, he said the situation was critical and seemed to be well high hopes, the public utility companies having joined hands with the corrupt element, yet the aroused public opinion, manifested in the heavy registration, gave hope of a Republican victory in the city election May 11. Mr. Wolcott called upon the Republicans of the State to work for a heavy majority in the Legislature, and suggested that it should even take away the charter of the city and county, if necessary, in order to put an end to the election frauds.

Gov. Peabody was introduced and an ovation was given him. He made a brief speech, advocating harmony. Speeches were also made by John W. Springer, candidate for Mayor of Denver, and John W. Miller, who was named as delegates to the national convention, and were instructed for the President.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
DENVER, May 6.—Gov. Peabody, an adherent of the Wolcott wing of the party, was chosen permanent chairman. The convention then proceeded to the selection of delegates and alternates to the national convention. They were chosen without the semblance of a contest and are equally divided among the Wolcott and anti-Wolcott factions.

The delegates elected are: Ex-Senator E. O. Wolcott, Gov. James H. Peabody, A. M. Stevenson, Thomas F. Walsh, N. W. Dixon, S. E. Downer.

Chicago Primaries Bitterly Contested.
CHICAGO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]—Republican primaries held today to select delegates to the county and State conventions were bitterly contested. State's Attorney Charles H. Denene appears to have won in his fight against the Lorimer machine and claims control of the county organization and more than 200 of the State delegates for Governor. Congressman Lorimer went out in the Sixth, his home district.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Questions relating to the Panama Canal, general politics and departmental matters were the subjects under consideration at the meeting of the Cabinet today.

While the President himself does not expect to deliver political speeches during the approaching campaign, it is known that several members of the Cabinet will take an active part in the contest. Secretaries Taft, Shaw, Moody, Wilson and Atty.-Gen. Knox are expected to deliver important speeches, and some of them will speak many times. It is said also that Speaker Cannon will make an extensive tour of the country.

BRAZIL THREATENS PERU.
CRISIS OVER ACRES DISPUTE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Acres dispute, supposed to have been adjusted, has broken out again, and a crisis is threatened. Ordinarily, the controversy between three nations—Brazil, Peru and Bolivia—is for the ownership of a large triangular tract of rubber lands, situated where the three countries adjoin. Bolivia was eliminated by an agreement satisfactory to her, and it was supposed that Peru's claim would be met.

It appears, however, that Peruvian troops remain in the territory claimed by Brazil, and today Minister Thompson called the State Department from the Brazilian Legation in Rio de Janeiro. "If Peru refuses to withdraw troops from the disputed territory," he said, "the United States will be obliged to take action."

Peru's claim is being followed, and it is expected that Brazil will immediately resort to force to expel the Peruvians, and will proceed to repossess the territory.

ROOSEVELT AT FAIR.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
ST. LOUIS, May 6.—The board of lady managers of the World's Fair has decided unanimously that the pictures of prominent women of the United States shall be hung on the walls of the woman's building. This decision was reached with the provision that the pictures collected must be those of bona fide prominent women and that they must pass an inspection to be made by a specially appointed committee, the personnel of which is not to be revealed. About 400 pictures have been collected, all of which had received the approval of the former president of the board, Mrs. James A. Blair.

The board adopted a resolution to tender a reception in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt during her intended visit to St. Louis. A resolution, introduced by Miss Helen M. Gould, was adopted to tender a reception in the woman's building during the latter part of May to the officers of the Army and Navy who are affiliated with the exposition.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—One of the most notable functions that has taken place at the World's Fair, informal in nature but gorgeous in appointments, was the dedication and opening of the Chinese pavilion today.

President Francis and Prince Pu Lu, the Imperial Chinese commissioner, exchanged sentiments of good will between their nations. Many Chinese dignitaries, including the Chinese Minister, Sir Cheng, were present at the dedication.

Tonight, Prince Pu Lu, tendered a reception at the Washington Hotel, which more than 1400 guests were invited including exposition and city officials, State and foreign commissioners and prominent social personages. The entire first floor of the hotel had been reserved for the reception. Prince Pu Lu was assisted by Sir Cheng Tung Liang Cheng in receiving the guests.

At the Chinese building, ivory inlaid in a wall was removed and the depression filled with plaster of Paris.

J. D. Buckalew, third vice-president of the Machinists' Union, tonight offered to submit to the Santa Fe management a new set of rules adopted by the Executive Committee of the union in Washington. He was informed that the Santa Fe would have no dealings with the union whatever.

Manager Mudge absolutely refused to consider any proposition Buckalew had to offer. In discussing his action he said:

"We have a fine set of men working for us and we want to give them every opportunity to get back in the service. This is why we have waited all this time. The men were imposed on by the representation of union officials, and we do not wish to see them lose their positions for any such reason. Every place remaining vacant Monday morning will be filled. ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) May 6.—In the District Court, Judge Baker has refused to modify the injunction against the striking Santa Fe machinists. Attorneys for the strikers sought to have the clause forbidding the strikers talking to non-union men stricken out. The court held that the granting of these requests might lead to the intimidation of new men and also to their being driven from the service of the road against their will. The court held that the injunction injured no law-abiding citizen and therefore continued it in force until June 1.

A referee was appointed to take testimony on the merits of the case to be used at the final hearing. During the course of the proceedings the company's attorneys introduced affidavits charging that the strikers had attempted to disable locomotives by placing emery dust in the driving journals. They also charged that one engine was rendered useless by placing a heavy bar of iron in the running gear. Attorneys for the strikers asked for a continuance to enable them to introduce affidavits refuting the charges. This the court denied.

Charles A. Spenny was the next witness. He testified that he was a director of the Ohio Debutante Company of Columbus, O., and manager of the Baltimore Debutante Company. He testified that he had come to Washington to see how the opinion affected the three investment companies among their clientele.

"Mr. Tyner asked me if I had a lawyer," said the witness, "and I answered him that I had not, and asked if he was a good one. TOPEKA (Kan.) May 6.—The striking Santa Fe machinists will be given until Monday morning to resume their places with the company. Notices to this effect will be posted at all the shops in the Santa Fe system tomorrow, on the order of General Manager Mudge.

J. D. Buckalew, third vice-president of the Machinists' Union, tonight offered to submit to the Santa Fe management a new set of rules adopted by the Executive Committee of the union in Washington. He was informed that the Santa Fe would have no dealings with the union whatever.

Manager Mudge absolutely refused to consider any proposition Buckalew had to offer. In discussing his action he said:

"We have a fine set of men working for us and we want to give them every opportunity to get back in the service. This is why we have waited all this time. The men were imposed on by the representation of union officials, and we do not wish to see them lose their positions for any such reason. Every place remaining vacant Monday morning will be filled. We have a larger number of machinists engaged than there are strikers out. We shall have no trouble whatever."

Saturday Night CLEAN-UP & OF SPECIALS

WE positively will not carry any of our Saturday night specials over into another season. We have had them literally to burn, but appreciative buyers have spared them. The remaining few must go tonight after 7 o'clock. Come early and get the pick. No phone or mail orders; no delivery except on chairs or rockers.

PARIS, May 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] An authoritative statement was issued by the Associated Press from the details and circumstances of the new Russian loan, as follows: The situation since your interview with the financial agent in London, the loan is based on the cost of the war on the Russian front, up to June 1, including $100,000 for railroad equipment, $100,000 for the purchase of the war, and $100,000 for the purchase of the war, making the total cost $300,000, for the closing of January 1, next. party of sailors, Capt. Nomoto leading, was ordered ashore. It being low tide, it was impossible to use the boats and the sailors plunged into the water, waded breast deep, for about a thousand yards, and reached the beach at 7:30 p. m. Immediately advancing, they took possession of a range of hills without firing a shot, and planted our flag on the hills.

The gunboats Amagi, Oshima and Chokai were employed to distract the enemy's attention. They discovered a hundred of the enemy and shelled them, killing several.

The first fleet of transports, on seeing our flag displayed on an eminence, began landing troops at 8 p. m. The troops, who were forced to wade ashore, were in high spirits.

In order to facilitate the further landing of troops, piers are being erected. Our division is assisting in the work.

The report of Admiral Katakai, commander of the third squadron, gives additional details of the landing. The admiral reports that his squadron conveyed the first batch of the Second Army to Liao Tung and adds that the Kara Maru grounded near the base at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was assisted by the protected cruiser Akitsushima, was floated and reached her destination safely at 5 o'clock the same evening.

PORT ARTHUR'S ISOLATION IS EXPECTED BY RUSSIANS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.]—4:13 p. m.—The Japanese landing at Pitsewo is expected to be followed almost immediately by the isolation of Port Arthur. Landings on the west coast of the peninsula are also anticipated. The Russian military authorities seem reconciled to the cutting-off of their stronghold, but they are convinced that the fortress is impregnable against attacks by land or sea. Though the enemy may invest the place, the authorities here do not believe the Japanese will undertake to storm the position. It is believed that the greater part of the troops have been withdrawn, and that Lieutenant Gen. Stoessel's force, including the garrison of Port Arthur, does not exceed 35,000 men. The fortress is provisioned for a year. Further operations are dependent upon the development of the campaign on the mainland.

It is understood the landing at Pitsewo was preceded by a bombardment of the shore by Japanese warships. The Japanese were practically unopposed by the Russians.

No direct information has been received here as to whether Gen.

Kuroki's army has advanced from its position on the Yalu River, but it is known that the Japanese are reconnoitering south of Feng Wang Cheng and along the littoral, and a landing near Taku Shan, that the enemy might establish himself on the right flank of the Russians, is considered probable. A sharp lookout is being kept northeast of Feng Wang Cheng, to prevent the possibility of a flanking movement from that direction, but it is understood that no signs of the enemy have been discovered.

Gen. Kourapatkin's plans are being carefully guarded. The General Staff insists that hardly more than 7000 Russians were actually engaged, while the enemy had five times that number, and there was an almost similar disparity in the number of the Russian guns.

It is reported that Gen. Kourapatkin has asked the Emperor to dismiss Lieut.-Gen. Zassalitch for disobedience of orders. Such action would not be surprising.

Among the many rumors afloat which are not confirmable is one that the Emperor intends to proclaim the mobilization of the entire Russian army on the occasion of the grand review at St. Petersburg, May 11, and at the same time bid farewell to the famous Semenovskii Foot Guards, who have been selected to go to the front.

The late Vice-Admiral Makarov's daughter has been appointed maid of honor to the Empress.

Two distinct landing operations by the Japanese in the vicinity of Port Arthur are reported in dispatches to the Associated Press. According to cables from Tokio and St. Petersburg, the Japanese effected a landing in force and unopposed at Pitsewo, a point on the east coast of the peninsula, about seventy-five miles above Port Arthur. Another successful landing is reported to have taken place at Port Adams which is situated on an arm of Society Bay, on the west coast of the peninsula, directly opposite and about twenty miles distant from Pitsewo. The railroad from Port Arthur to Mukden passes close to Port Adams, and it is evident that it is now in possession of the Japanese at this point.

A dispatch from Washington indicates a landing, according to advice received there, at Kinchow, or Kinchow. This place is located at the extreme eastern shore of the bay of the same name on the west coast, and is directly across the peninsula from the Russian port of Dalny. It is about forty miles north of Port Arthur. The strip of land between Dalny and Kinchow is the narrowest part of the peninsula. Kinchow is about half-way between Port Arthur and Port Adams, and is also on the railroad. It is probable, however, that this landing refers to that at Port Adams, which is on an arm of the sea adjacent to Kinchow Bay.

RUSSIANS FIGHT RUSSIANS.
TOKIO, May 6, Noon.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Gen. Kuroki, in reporting yesterday, tells of a bloody encounter during the Russian retreat Sunday last, when a large force of Russians mistook a small body of their own men for Japanese, killing and wounding 180 of them.

Gen. Kuroki says that a Japanese patrol consisting of fourteen men reached Tengkang-Hong on the 3d inst., when a Russian patrol, posted on a hill south of the village, attacked them. The Japanese patrol, upon being turned and charged them, and after an interminable struggle, the enemy was driven back in the direction of Feng Wang Chen. The Japanese patrol pursued them to a stream three miles southwest of Koolmen, where Russian sentries were discovered posted on hills on both sides of the road.

According to information furnished by a native, a body of Russian infantry 2000 strong, occupying a hill near Tengkang-Hong, Sunday, mistook a detachment of their own infantry, about 200 strong, which was retreating, for Japanese troops and engaged it in battle. In the fighting which followed, 110 were killed and seventy wounded, and the Russian carts were stampered, leaving their loads of stores behind. According to the story told by a captured Russian officer who participated in the battle, Sunday last, only five or six battalions of Russian infantry and two battalions of artillery were able to retire in order. The other troops ran away in a state of entire confusion.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
NEW YORK, May 6.—A telegram from Paris permitting direct communication between the Russian capital, Paris, and London, will be tested next week, says a Times dispatch from Paris. Hitherto, St. Petersburg telegrams for Paris have gone by way of Berlin, or by cable via Bornholm and Odessa.

NEW RUSSIAN LOAN.
STATEMENT CONCERNING IT.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
PARIS, May 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.]—An authoritative statement was given to the Associated Press from the Russian government source concerning the details and circumstances of a new Russian loan, as follows:

"The situation has been much improved since your interview with M. de Roukowsky, the Russian financial agent in London, on May 22. The conditions today on the loan are based on: 1. The cost of the war for the first six months, up to June 1, including 1000 for railroad equipment, is $10,000. After June 1, the monthly cost of the war will be $2,500,000 for the army and $1,500,000 for the navy, making a total of $4,000,000 for the month of January 1, next.

"The first part of the war was more expensive than the latter, owing to the cost of mobilization and the general expenses incident to setting the machinery of war in motion. Against this extraordinary expense we may have certain economies, namely, $30,000,000 on the ordinary budget; $27,500,000 on the extraordinary budget, and $2,500,000 on previous budgets, making the total economies $60,000,000.

"When the war began, the Russian government had between $150,000,000 and $200,000,000 to its credit in the Bank of France and with foreign bankers. According to the monetary law of 1897, which made gold the standard for Russia, there was a stock of gold amounting to $474,000,000, and a note issue of $250,000,000. Therefore, Russia could still have placed in circulation $200,000,000 to $250,000,000 in notes without impairing the slightest the gold law of 1897. However, by so doing the monetary situation after the war might have been less satisfactory than at present. Accordingly, for the purpose of protecting the internal monetary situation, the Russian government has taken a favorable ear to the proposals made by French banks and has opened negotiations at St. Petersburg with Joseph Hottinger of the house of Hottinger & Company, and with M. Noetling, one of the directors of the Banque de Paris et des Pays Bas.

"They have made two visits to St. Petersburg and are leaving there tomorrow for Paris. The purpose of their visits is to negotiate the issue of treasury bonds, running five years, at 5 per cent. These are going to be offered to customers of the high French financial houses at near par. By so doing the Russian government reserves the right after five years to make use of its internal credit to convert or consolidate these five-year bonds into a funded debt bearing a lower rate of interest. The amount will be taken up at once in Paris and will be $100,000,000 and the issue can go up to $150,000,000.

"Already the contracting houses are sure to place the full amount they underwrite among their customers. Therefore, no public issuance is to be made and the public subscription at a fixed day will be dispensed with, the issue being sold by bankers privately."

The foregoing differs from other reports concerning the amount of the loan, but owing to the authoritative source, it can be accepted as final. It is understood that the terms will be signed before M. Hottinger and Noetling depart from St. Petersburg tomorrow, or thereafter. The signing by the French banks will take place next week, the issuance of the loan following immediately.

INTO VIRTUAL SLAVERY.
Ships Packed With Chinese Coolies Under Contract to Work in Mines Unloading at Cape Town.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: CAPE TOWN, May 1.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Ever since the British Parliament passed the law permitting the importation of Chinese labor for the mines, the steamship companies have been rushing representatives of the "yellow peril" here by the shipload.

Each ship that comes in from the Far East is crowded to the gunwale with Chinese coolies, who have practically sold themselves into slavery.

The law permits contracts for coolie labor by which the laborer agrees to work for a term of years. During this time he is under the absolute power of the company which contracts for him, and by various means experts believe that it will result in most of the coolies thus imported becoming slaves for life.

Just how crowded the ships are that bring the coolies was well illustrated by a vessel that arrived the other day. When a picture was taken the decks were so filled with the "yellow peril" that one could walk from side to side of the ship on their heads without being in danger of falling.

GREATEST QUESTION OF CONFERENCE IS SAID TO BE PRACTICALLY DECIDED.

Will Methodists Return to Old Term Limit of Pastorate?—Must Favorite Ministers "Move on"?—Wonderful Scene at Yesterday's Pentecostal Feast—Sunday-School Rally.

METHODIST preachers, who, for a few brief years have enjoyed work in their favorite parishes, and whose people have felt happy in being able to hold their strong and favorite pastors during the pleasure of the presiding elder, may have to move on.

The great army of preachers who are located over less desirable halliwicks, and the army of laymen who find themselves in possession of the less popular preachers, have hammers out for the rule adopted four years ago, entirely removing the time limit. Twelve years ago the limit was three years, then it was changed to five years, and finally removed entirely at the last General Conference.

There is no mistaking the temper of the present General Conference. It is a conference of Methodism of the old type, and it will be likely to return to old principles.

The first session of the Committee on Itinerancy, which was held yesterday, and the ominous non-committal attitude of the bishops in their annual address to the conference, are both pointers in the direction indicated above. In addition to this, it is the exception when either minister or layman can be found among the delegates who is in favor of the unlimited tenure.

Dr. S. F. Upham, president of the Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J., is chairman of the Committee on Itinerancy, and was so thoroughly determined to give impartial treatment to the members who wished to talk that some of them abused the privilege; so much was this true that in moving an adjournment a member said: "Some of the brethren must be weary and out of breath, having spoken fifteen or twenty times, and I move an adjournment for their relief."

Among the papers before the committee were memorials from ten conferences, from various parts of the country, and these memorials proved to be the first and only "bone of contention" that occupied the time of the committee.

The majority of those present wanted to hear them read at once and intimated that they wanted them read now so that nothing contained in them could be suppressed without their knowledge. In fact, they did not mind words in saying so.

After an hour's debate the memorials were read, and there were many sly winks and nods during the reading, for every one of the ten called unqualifiedly for the restoration of the time limit.

Those who opposed the reading then wanted the memorial referred to a sub-committee of three or five for report to the full committee, but the majority again had its way and the sub-committee was made to consist of fifteen—one from each Episcopal district and one at large. This sub-committee will be named at the next service, with longer term permissible in special cases.

There were present yesterday 115 members of the Committee on Itinerancy. The presenting of the report of the sub-committee on Friday will give something tangible to work upon and no doubt will bring out the full committee, with probably an audience that will well fill Simpson Auditorium, where the committee meets at platform, and this ovation was renewed later in the evening when Mr. Rindge spoke.

Rev. Dr. A. P. George of the Middle West does not believe so much in committing to memory long passages of Scripture by Sunday-school children as in learning and understanding the Golden Rule. "But even that does not always work," he said, "for I once knew a man who was such a first-class advocate that he would not let his son go to Sunday-school because it had a golden rule." [Laughter.] The doctor also believes in hustling for "patrons" in religion, the same as business. "When Oklahoma was opened up by the crack of a gun and the great rush across the plains began, there was one minister of the Presbyterian church who was so anxious to get the first church in the new Territory that he went up and sat in the baggage car of the train. meeting on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

When the committee is able to arrive at a conclusion its report will be made to the General Conference for action by the entire body.

Unmistakably the rank and file of Methodist ministers and laymen desire the restoration of a time limit, as was evidenced by the number of memorials sent up by the Annual Conferences and brought to light in yesterday afternoon's session of the committee. Not only were they numerous, but most emphatic in tone. Somehow the impression has gone abroad that the historic and peculiarly Methodist system of an itinerant ministry is in danger of being destroyed by an unlimited pastoral service. But despite these memorials the strong, conservative leaders like Drs. Buckley, Upham, King, Day, Little and the younger pastors, like Drs. Eckman, Downey, Anderson and Hughes, who are now serving beyond the old five-year limit, will combine to try to hold the church at large to four years' further trial of unlimited service. Seldom does the great church reverse its own deliberate action. From two to five, and from five to no limit. The great leaders maintain that it would be puerile to make any further change at present. One of them makes this statement: "The essence of itinerancy is the power of a bishop to remove a minister at any time without his consent or the consent of a church. This is the same whether we have a limit or no limit. Now every man is appointed for one year only as formerly. There is no distinction such as would be created by a return to a limit with special provisions for special cases. These special cases would cause uneasiness wrangles in the local churches and the appointing cabinet. Now every man is on the level and works out his own salvation. It is truly democratic."

AN OVATION FOR RINDGE.

GAVE GREAT SUM TO SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

Most Successful Anniversary Meeting Last Night—Negro Preacher Tells of Generosity of Angeli to His Race—Methodist Minister Was Foremost "Rusher."

A variety and abundance of spiritual and practical thought from field workers representing every section of the United States made the Sunday-school anniversary of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Hazard's Pavilion last night a happy success. The topic of the evening was "The Sunday-school Union, Its Work and Its Needs," and the keynote of the meeting was that "the church of the future may be found in the Sunday-school of today." Dr. Thomas B. Neely presided, and there was good music, both solo and chorus.

Dr. Charles C. Jacobs, representing the Eastern South, spoke for his race, the negro, and enthusiastically told of the work done among the children of the freedmen. That work, he explained, had been made possible by the generosity of a Southern California man, who gave $25,000 for Sunday-school union in that section. "After much pleading," said Dr. Jacobs, "with that man to let me make his name known, his modesty forbade his consent. God has given my people all of these blessings which have been the outgrowth of his generosity, and yet I am not allowed to say the name of Frederick Rindge!"

The announcement of the name called forth an ovation for the Los Angeles who was sitting on the the slow-down was made at the station, he opened the baggage-car door and got ready to jump, but as he looked, suddenly he saw a Methodist preacher rush from the train and plant a white flag in the best town lot. That Methodist preacher, had been riding on the cow-catcher! [Great laughter and applause.]

"And that minister," continued Dr. George, "held his first services at 9 o'clock in the morning and when asked why he did not wait until 10 o'clock, which was the usual hour, he said, 'Because the other fellow is to hold his then and I want to be the first.' There were 600 men, 17 women and one girl present at that service and that is a statistical fact."

Had this anniversary meeting been an oratorical contest, Dr. E. Jones, a negro representing the Middle West, would undoubtedly have taken first honors. He spoke with a diction and eloquence which held the large assembly in rapt attention. He warmed up to his subject in speaking of his own work and the work done for his people by the Methodist Episcopal Church. "Is missionary work is an end to Christian religion and we send disciples to foreign lands to teach among the heathen men of the Philippines, why should the black man at home be forgotten?" pointedly asked the speaker. "From the first Mississippi Conference when thirteen negro men were present as the sum total of converts of the race, the number has grown to over 100,000 and there are twenty-four negro representatives from that southern land in attendance here. At that first conference when a secretary was chosen from the thirteen he said, 'There is not one among us who can read or write.'
